TRAIN WRECKED.

A Train Loaded With Cattle Becomes Uncoupled and is Run Into by Another Train.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 24.—On the Northwestern road, west of Maywood, between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning, a series of cattle loaded trains, bound for Chicago, held the tracks. The forward train was broken in two, and before the sections could be recoupled, the rear portion was overtaken and run into by the second train. The caboose and two of the cars were broken into splinters. A drover named R. G. Paul, who was asleep in the caboose, is reported dead. The engineer and fireman escaped by jumping.

Skilled Workmen Organizing.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 24.—The Knights of Labor have begun an important movement among skilled iron workers, by organizing an assembly of skilled workmen at the Elba iron and bolt works. The assembly is composed of heaters and rollers, but it is the intention to admit puddlers in a few days. All men enrolled are members of the Amalgamated association and intend to remain so.

Wheeler Released on Bail.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 24.—Wheeler, who was bound over yesterday without bail for murdering his wife, was released today on $20,000 bail by Judge McKenny.

Death of a Millionaire.

DETROIT, Nov. 24.—Francis Palma, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens in this city, died this morning. He leaves an estate worth from fifteen to eighteen millions.

THE KNIGHTS.

They Abandon Local for the State Assembly in Missouri.

SEDAVIA, Mo., Nov. 24.—Knights of Labor have withdrawn from district assembly No. 101 and the assemblies will be attached to the state assembly. It is predicted that all other local assemblies along the line of the Gould system in Missouri will follow suit and those in Kansas will also withdraw and hereafter work under the jurisdiction of the state assembly.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The weather indications are as follows:
Kentucky, fair weather in eastern portion, nearly stationary in western.
Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, generally fair weather, nearly stationary temperature.

Wade Hampton Meets With a Mishap.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 24.—General Wade Hampton, while out hunting, got lost from his party. His gun was accidentally discharged, killing his horse. The animal fell on one of the general's limbs, and it was with great difficulty that he freed himself and started to walk home. He had been walking five hours when a searching party found him, nearly exhausted, late at night.

THE COUNT.

Judge Chapin Gets Sixty-eight Majority
—Judge Hench will Contest on Other Grounds.

After a rather lengthy session Messrs. W. D. Page, Mike Houlihan and Wm. Miller, completed the count of the ballots in the Hench-Chapin contest for the superior court judgeship after 1 o'clock this morning. The contestants were present during the count with their witnesses and clerks. Harry Metzgar, the commissioner counted 6,276 votes for Mr. Chapin and 6,208 for Mr. Hench, giving Chapin sixty-eight majority. In the second precinct of the Sixth ward Hench lost eight and Chapin lost two. This was the largest change made in any single precinct. In the Fourth ward twenty-nine straight democratic tickets with Chapin's name alone, in place of Hench's, and fifty-two other tickets headed "democratic ticket," with Chapin's and a few other independent names thereon were discovered. About the legality of such tickets there is some question, inasmuch as it is presumed they were circulated to deceive people. There were numerous other discrepancies, but they about balanced on each side. The question hinges on the eighty-one ballots fraudulently headed "democratic ticket." Judge Hench says he will maintain his right to hold his position on the superior court bench two years longer, on the ground that his term does not legally expire until two years hence. He will immediately proceed against Judge Chapin in the court, and will endeavor to prevent him from taking his office tomorrow, the date of Judge Chapin's commission. THE SENTINEL submits the facts without comment.

HER BOODLE.

A Detroit Woman Hugs $162,000 to Her Breast.

DETROIT, Nov. 24.—Charles Richardson, of Alpena, died a year ago leaving to his wife property valued at $900,000. Relatives contested the will. R. J. Kelly, J. D. Trumbull and George H. Slater, of Alpena, were retained by Mrs. Richardson. Contrary to their advice she compromised by paying $120,000 to the relatives.

The attorneys rendered bills, Kelly for $20,000, Trumbull $10,000 and Slater $8,000. Mrs. Richardson thought the charge exorbitant and refused to pay. Saturday she drew $162,000 from an Alpena bank and came to Detroit, where she deposited $59,000 in a bank. The lawyers followed her and hearing they had taken a garnishment she drew the cash and since has kept it with her. The result is hard to foresee. The lawyers say she is a miser and crazy.

Business Failures.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Wm. Hayden, furniture and desk manufacturer, Wabash avenue, made an assignment this morning. The amount of his liabilities and assets are unknown. The firm has done an extensive business.

The President's Message Short.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 24.—The president has appointed Bishop Gordon, of Minnesota, receiver of public monies at Redwood Falls, Minn.

All the members of the cabinet were present at the meeting to-day except Secretary Manning. The session was devoted entirely to consideration of the president's message. The document is nearly finished. The president has received all data necessary for its completion except such as relate to the war and naval establishments and these will be furnished him in a few days. The president read completed portions of his message to the cabinet to-day. It is understood that the message will be much shorter than last year.

Death of Mrs. Mollie Robinson.

Mrs. Frank M. Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Platt J. Wise, died last night at the home of her parents on West Berry street. Mrs. Robinson has long been a sufferer from consumption and that dreaded disease at last claimed her. Mrs. Robinson, nee Mollie Wise, was a lady of charming traits and rare nobility of character. Her sunny disposition and womanly virtues endeared her to whomsoever she met. A wide circle of friends and acquaintances will regret her death, and lament that a lady so young and with such pleasant surroundings should be summoned into eternity. THE SENTINEL extends to her relatives its warmest sympathy in this hour of deep sorrow.

Mrs. Robinson's funeral will occur Friday, but the hour is not announced.

John Schaffer, of Grand street, will raffle off 100 turkeys to-night.

It is generally thought in railway circles that A. A. Talmage, general manager of the Wabash road, will be called to the management of the Gould system in place of the late H. M. Hoxie.

LOCAL NEWS.

Inspector George Ohneck went to Decatur on revenue business.

Pittsburg freight train No. 71 broke in two parts east of here and delayed the passenger trains.

Mr. Stewart, of the Boston store, leaves for New York this evening to purchase goods for the holidays.

Hon. Fred J. Hayden received from Washington, this morning, a rice consignment of German carp for his pond.

Mrs. Hannah Hunting charges Mrs. Glass with provoking her. Justice France will listen to the neighborhood quarrel.

Mrs. Clark, mother of Mrs. C. D. Law, was summoned to Jersey City last night by a telegram announcing the illness of her father.

The postoffice will be opened from 9 to 10 to-morrow and the carriers will make a street delivery in the morning. Formerly they did not make a street delivery.

Mr. Charley Centlivre and Miss Amelia Neiman will be married at the Cathedral at 6:30 a. m. to-morrow. THE SENTINEL sends its congratulations in advance.

Sheriff Nelson took Blair Mock and William Fridiger to Huntington this afternoon. They are to have a preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering Harry Vandevender.

Lieutenant Governor Robertson, Congressman-elect White, Judge Chapin and Mayor Muhler have kindly accepted an invitation to the Thanksgiving dinner, at the Baptist church, to-morrow, between 1 and 2 o'clock. They will be the guests of 500 people or more.

Under the new association of livery and hack men the prices of hacks will be $4 for funerals and $8 for election day. Livery vehicles will be uniform in price and it will cost more to ride. It is now in order for the people to organize for protection.

Died, at No. 284 Harrison street, this morning, at 11 o'clock, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Beverford, aged three years and six months, of membranous croup. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the house, and from Emanuel's Lutheran church, at 2:30 p. m.

Next Monday occurs the opening of the Academy of Music for the winter season. The opening piece will be "A Wife's Honor," by Lawrence Marston, of which the Chicago News says: "A Wife's Honor," by Mr. Lawrence Marston, made its first appearance in Chicago, at the Academy, this week, where it met with great success. The author takes the part of Baron Philip Kotek, playing with good effect. The scenes are laid in Bohemia and Paris, and are such as to give the action picturesque surroundings. The duel scene is particularly strong and sensational."

It is now proposed to sink a well near the water works pumping house at a cost of $1,200. Out of this hole it is expected to supply the great city of Fort Wayne with water. THE SENTINEL predicts in advance the failure of this scheme and marvels at the patience of tax payers whose money is thus from year to year squandered and cast to the winds just to satisfy every passing notion and experimental whim. Thousands of dollars have been expended for a water supply, pipes have been laid to the river, wells sunk and still no supply. Every man who owns a foot of land and pays taxes on it will rue the day the feeder canal was not purchased. It always was, is now and always will be the only reliable, honest and sufficient source of water supply at the disposal of the city.

The livery and hackmen met at Odd Fellows' hall last night and formed a protective association known as the Livery and Hackmen's Protective association. The following officers were elected:

President—James Liggett.
Vice-president—Emmett M. Powers.
Secretary—L. P. Stapleford.
Treasurer—Fred Rippe.

A committee of seven consisting of Messrs. Cosgrove, Wilson Pearce, Abram Barnett, George Swayne, Dr. G. P. Barnum, Henry Winklemeyer and Fred Jones was appointed to draw up a constitution and by laws and a uniform schedule of charges. The next meeting will be held at the office of Powers & Barnett on Friday evening, November 26, 1886.

W. Edwin Chipchase, 200 S. Charles St., Balto., Md., writes: "For cure of sprains and in inflammations I regard Salvation Oil as a sure cure."

Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and do not disturb the preacher and congregation with your cough.

THANKSGIVING.

A Day of Prayer, Feasting and Rejoicing at the Prosperity and Happiness of a Free People.

To-morrow is Thanksgiving day and custom has sanctioned its universal observance in this country. Accordingly THE SENTINEL will not issue. The public offices will all close, the shops and manufactories will stop and towards noon business generally will be entirely suspended, therefore it is proper that the people should give way to the reigning fashion.

Each one will observe the occasion differently, and as many notions prevail as there are people to back them. THE SENTINEL suggests that each one devote some little time to thanksgiving and prayer. Attend some church, it is holy and wholesome. We have so much to thank kind Providence for. Our prosperity, our public health, our patriotism, and all the things that make mankind happy. Let no one forget, however, that the poor we have always with us. Charity to them is a gift to God, and no one gives to his less fortunate neighbor that is not happier, better and more contented. Let us all aim to find sunshine, and if you have more than you need, let it go to some one else, and then, indeed will we have a Thanksgiving day.

The occasion, of course, is one of feasting and the turkey is the national bird. How to prepare the fowl may puzzle the young housewife so we proceed to moralize.

A Thanksgiving turkey should be a young fat hen turkey. Take out the giblets, which the butcher should have previously cleaned and replaced; put them in a saucepan with plenty of hot water and boil them well.

To stuff the turkey, soak as much bread as you think will be needed, till it can be easily mashed, pour off the water not absorbed, pressing the bread well that it may not be too wet; add to this two well beaten eggs, plenty of salt and pepper; as much summer savory or sweet marjoram as you like, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter and a little celery salt.

Lay the turkey on its back and first stuff it at the neck, where the crop has been drawn. The skin should never be cut open there, but it always is; so it must be sewed up with darning cotton after stuffing it out to plumpness; common thread tears the tender skin. Then stuff the carcass, sew up the opening, and grasping the legs firmly push them back till the ends of the drumsticks can be tied to the rump; the place where the oil bag is cut out makes a groove for the string; cut off the small pinion of the wings, draw them close to the side of the bird, and secure by a string tied just at the upper end of the breast bone; tie a string about the end of the neck and pull it down under the left wing; the neck should not be cut off too short for this purpose. Rub the skin of the turkey over with fine salt, and plentifully anoint it with sweet butter. Lay it on a rack in the dripping pan, and keep well basted; roast from two to three hours, according to size.

In all cooking judgment is more needful than directions, since these must be mutable with the sort of oven, the size of meat or poultry and the sort of fuel used. To make the gravy, skim off all fat from the liquor in which the giblets are boiled, mash the liver and chop the gizzard and heart fine, omitting all gristle and fat; put them back into the liquor season with salt, pepper, celery salt and a small pinch of clove, boil up and thicken with a tablespoonful of flour rubbed smooth in a tablespoonful of butter.

A nice Thanksgiving bill of fare is prepared as follows:

Roast Turkey,
Cold Boiled Ham,
Roast Ducks,
Chicken Pie,
Mashed Potatoes,
Stewed Celery,
Stewed Salsify,
Baked Sweet Potatoes,
Cranberry Sauce,
Wild Grape Jelly,
Celery,
Spiced Peaches,
Pickled Cauliflower,
Pumpkin Pie,
Strained Apple Pie,
Cranberry Tart,
Cocoanut Pie,
Baked Indian Pudding,
Wine Jelly with Cream,
Apples, Walnuts, Raisins, Almonds and Ginger.

TRAIN WRECKED.

A Train Loaded With Cattle Becomes Uncoupled and is Run Into by Another Train.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 24.—On the Northwestern road, west of Maywood, between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning, a train of cattle loaded trains, bound for Chicago, held the tracks. The forward train was broken in two, and before the sections could be recoupled, the rear portion was overtaken and run into by the second train. The caboose and two of the cars were broken into splinters. A driver named R. G. Paul, who was asleep in the caboose, is reported dead. The engineer and fireman escaped by jumping.

Skilled Workmen Organizing.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 24.—The Knights of Labor have begun an important movement among skilled iron workers, by organizing an assembly of skilled workmen at the Elton iron and blast works. The assembly is composed of heaters and rollers, but it is the intention to admit puddlers in a few days. All men enrolled are members of the Amalgamated association and intend to remain so.

Wheeler Released on Bail.

Death of a Millionaire.

DETROIT, Nov. 24.—Francis Palmer, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens in this city, died this morning. He leaves an estate worth from fifteen to eighteen millions.

THE KNIGHTS.

They Abandon Local for the State Assembly in Missouri.

SEDALE, Mo., Nov. 24.—Knights of Labor have withdrawn from district assembly No. 101 and the assemblies will be attached to the state assembly. It is predicted that all other local assemblies along the line of the Gould system in Missouri will follow suit and those in Kansas will also withdraw and hereafter work under the jurisdiction of the state assembly.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The weather indications are as follows:
Kentucky, fair weather in eastern portion, nearly stationary in western.
Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, generally fair weather, nearly stationary temperature.

Wade Hampton Meets With a Mishap.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 24.—General Wade Hampton, while out hunting, got lost from his party. His gun was accidentally discharged, killing his horse. The animal fell on one of the general's heels, and it was with great difficulty that he freed himself and started to walk home. He had been walking five hours when a searching party found him, nearly exhausted, late at night.

THE COUNT.

Judge Chapin Gets Sixty-eight Majority—Judge Hench Will Contest on Other Grounds.

After a rather lengthy session Messrs. W. D. Page, Mike Hamilton and Wm. Miller, completed the count of the ballots in the Hensch-Chapin contest for the superior court judgeship after 1 o'clock this morning. The contestants were present during the count with their witnesses and clerks. Henry Metzger says the commission counted 6,278 votes for Mr. Chapin and 6,208 for Mr. Hench, giving Chapin sixty-eight majority. In the second precinct of the Sixth ward Hench lost eight and Chapin lost two. This was the largest change made in any single precinct. In the Fourth ward twenty-nine straight democratic tickets with Chapin's name alone, in place of Hench's, and fifty-two other tickets headed "Democratic ticket," with Chapin's and a few other independent names thereon were discovered. About the legality of such tickets there is some question, inasmuch as it is presumed they were circulated to deceive people. There were numerous other discrepancies, but they about balanced on each side. The question hinges on the eighty-one ballots fraudulently headed "Democratic ticket."

Judge Hench says he will maintain his right to hold his position on the superior court bench two years longer, on the ground that his term does not legally expire until two years hence. He will immediately proceed against Judge Chapin in the court, and will endeavor to prevent him from taking his office tomorrow, the date of Judge Chapin's commission. The SENTINEL submits the facts without comment.

HER BOODLE.

A Detroit Woman Hugs $102,000 to Her Breast.

DETROIT, Nov. 24.—Charles Richardson, of Alpena, died a year ago leaving to his wife property valued at $900,000. Relatives contested the will. R. J. Kelly, J. D. Trumbull and George H. Slater, of Alpena, were retained by Mrs. Richardson. Contrary to their advice she compromised by paying $102,000 to the relatives.

The attorneys rendered Mills, Kelly for $20,000, Trumbull $10,000 and Slater $8,000. Mrs. Richardson thought the charge exorbitant and refused to pay. Saturday she drew $164,000 from an Alpena bank and came to Detroit, where she deposited $59,000 in a bank. The lawyers followed her and hearing they had taken a great amount she drew the cash and since has kept it with her. The result is hard to fathom. The lawyers say she is a miser and crazy.

Hello, There!

The President's Message Short.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 24.—The president has appointed Bishop Gordon, of Minnesota, receiver of public monies at Redwood Falls, Minn. All the members of the cabinet were present at the meeting to-day except Secretary Manning. The session was devoted entirely to consideration of the president's message. The document is heavily finished. The president has received all data necessary for its compilation except such as relate to the war and naval establishments and these will be furnished him in a few days. The president read completed portions of his message to the cabinet to-day. It is understood that the message will be much shorter than last year.

Death of Mrs. Mollie Robinson.

Mrs. Frank M. Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Platt J. Wise, died last night at the home of her parents on West Berry street. Mrs. Robinson has long been a sufferer from consumption and that dreaded disease at last claimed her. Mrs. Robinson, nee Mollie Wise, was a lady of charming traits and rare nobility of character. Her sunny disposition and womanly virtues endeared her to whomsoever she met. A wide circle of friends and acquaintances will regret her death, and lament that a lady so young and with such pleasant surroundings should be summoned into eternity. The SENTINEL extends to her relatives its warmest sympathy in this hour of deep sorrow.

Mrs. Robinson's funeral will occur Friday, but the hour is not announced. John Schaffer, of Grand street, will call off 100 turkeys to-night.

It is generally thought in railway circles that A. A. Talmage, general manager of the Wabash road, will be called to the management of the Gould system in place of the late H. M. Hoxie.

LOCAL NEWS.

Inspector George Obneck went to Decatur on revenue business. Pittsburg freight train No. 71 broke in two parts east of here and delayed the passenger trains.

Mr. Stewart, of the Boston store, leaves for New York this evening to purchase goods for the holidays.

Hon. Fred J. Hayden received from Washington, this morning, a rice commission of thirteen carp for his pond.

Mrs. Hannah Hunting charges Mrs. Glass with provoking her. Justice France will listen to the neighborhood quarrel.

Mrs. Clark, mother of Mrs. C. D. Law, was summoned to Jersey City last night by a telegram announcing the illness of her father.

The postoffice will be opened from 9 to 10 to-morrow and the carriers will make a street delivery in the morning. Formerly they did not make a street delivery.

Mr. Charley Centlivre and Miss Amelia Neirman will be married at the Cathedral at 6:30 a. m. to-morrow. The SENTINEL sends its congratulations in advance.

Sheriff Nelson took Blair Mook and William Fridiger to Huntington this afternoon. They are to have a preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering Harry Vandover.

Lieutenant Governor Robertson, Congressman-elect White, Judge Chapin and Mayor Muhler have kindly accepted an invitation to the Thanksgiving dinner, at the Baptist church, to-morrow, between 1 and 2 o'clock. They will be the guests of 600 people or more.

Under the new association of livery and hack men the prices of hacks will be $4 for funerals and $3 for election day. Livery vehicles will be uniform in price and it will cost more to ride. It is now in order for the people to organize for protection.

Died, at No. 284 Harrison street, this morning, at 11 o'clock, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Beverford, aged three years and six months, of membranous croup. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the house, and from Emanuel's Lutheran church, at 2:30 p. m.

Next Monday occurs the opening of the Academy of Music for the winter season. The opening piece will be "A Wife's Honor," by Lawrence Marston, of which the Chicago News says: "A Wife's Honor," by Mr. Lawrence Marston, made its first appearance in Chicago, at the Academy, this week, where it met with great success. The author takes the part of Baron Philip Koles, playing with good effect. The scenes are laid in Bohemia and Paris, and are such as to give the action picturesque surroundings. The duel scene is particularly strong and sensational."

It is now proposed to sink a well near the water works pumping house at a cost of $1,200. Out of this hole it is expected to supply the great city of Fort Wayne with water. The SENTINEL predicts in advance the failure of this scheme and marvels at the patience of tax payers whose money is thus from year to year squandered and cast to the winds just to satisfy every passing notion and experimental whim. Thousands of dollars have been expended for a water supply, pipes have been laid to the river, wells sunk and still no supply. Every man who owns a foot of land and pays taxes on it will rue the day the feeder canal was not purchased. It always was, is now and always will be the only reliable, honest and sufficient source of water supply at the disposal of the city.

The livery and hackmen met at Old Fellows' hall last night and formed a protective association known as the Livery and Hackmen's Protective association. The following officers were elected:

President—James Liggett.
Vice-president—Emmett M. Powers.
Secretary—L. P. Stuppleford.
Treasurer—Fred Bippo.

A committee of seven consisting of Messrs. Giesgrove, Wilson Pearce, Abram Barnett, George Smythe, Dr. G. P. Barnum, Henry Winklemeyer and Fred Jones was appointed to draw up a constitution and by laws and a uniform schedule of charges. The next meeting will be held at the office of Powers & Barnett on Friday evening, November 26, 1886.

W. Edwin Chipchase, 200 S. Charles St., Baltimore, Md., writes: "For cure of sprains and inflammation I regard Salvation Oil as a sure cure."

Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and do not disturb the preacher and congregation with your cough.

THANKSGIVING.

A Day of Prayer, Feasting and Rejoicing; of the Prosperity and Happiness of a Free People.

To-morrow is Thanksgiving day and custom has sanctioned its universal observance in this country. Accordingly the SENTINEL will not issue. The public officers will all close, the shops and manufacturing will stop and towards noon business generally will be entirely suspended, therefore it is proper that the people should give way to the reigning fashion.

Each one will observe the occasion differently, and as many notions prevail as there are people to back them. The SENTINEL suggests that each one devote some little time to thanksgiving and prayer. Attended some church, it is holy and wholesome. We have so much to thank kind Providence for. Our prosperity, our public health, our patriotism, and all the things that make mankind happy. Let no one forget, however, that the poor we have always with us. Charity to them is a gift to God, and no one gives to his less fortunate neighbor that is not happier, better and more contented. Let us all sin to find assistance, and if you have more than you need, let it go to some one else, and then, indeed will we have a Thanksgiving day.

The occasion, of course, is one of feasting and the turkey is the national bird. How to prepare the fowl may puzzle the young housewife so we proceed to moralize.

A Thanksgiving turkey should be a young fat hen turkey. Take out the giblets, which the butcher should have previously cleaned and replaced; put them in a saucepan with plenty of hot water and boil them well.

To stuff the turkey, soak as much bread as you think will be needed, till it can be easily mashed, pour off the water not absorbed, pressing the bread well that it may not be too wet; add to this two well beaten eggs, plenty of salt and pepper; as much summer savory or sweet marjoram as you like, two tablespoonsful of melted butter and a little celery salt.

Lay the turkey on its back and first stuff it at the neck, where the crop has been drawn. The skin should never be out open there, but it always is; so it must be sewed up with drawing cotton after stuffing it out to plumpness; common thread tears the tender skin. Then stuff the carcass, sew up the opening, and grasping the legs firmly pull them back till the ends of the drumsticks can be tied to the rump; the place where the oil bag is cut out makes a groove for the string; cut off the small portion of the wings, draw them close to the side of the bird, and secure by a string tied just at the upper end of the breast bones; tie a string about the end of the neck and pull it down under the left wing; the neck should not be cut off too short for this purpose. Rub the skin of the tail over with fine salt, and plentifully uncoat it with sweet butter. Lay it on a rack in the dripping pan, and keep well basted; roast from two to three hours, according to size.

In all cooking judgment is more needed than directions, since these must be suitable with the sort of oven, the size of meat or poultry and the sort of fuel used. To make the gravy, skim off all fat from the liquor in which the giblets are boiled, wash the liver and chop the gizzard and heart fine, omitting all gristle and fat; put them back into the liquor season with salt, pepper, celery salt and a small pinch of clove, boil up and thicken with a tablespoonful of flour rubbed smooth in a tablespoonful of butter.

A nice Thanksgiving bill of fare is prepared as follows:

Roast Turkey,
Cold Boiled Ham,
Roast Ducks,
Chicken Pie,
Mashed Potatoes,
Stewed Celery,
Stewed Salsify,
Baked Sweet Potatoes,

UNCLE JEHU BAKER.

Man Who Defeated Congressman Morrison in Illinois.

That a man of the name of Baker should defeat the popular and distinguished Mr. Morrison for the Illinois Congress—moreover, not only Baker, but John Baker, one of the election surprises that extended beyond the state of Illinois.

Yet Hon. John Baker is a good deal of a man himself. He is a lawyer and a judge; he has some old-fashioned notions, one of which is temperance. He cannot be said to be a prohibitionist; rather, a teetotaler. Strangely enough, during the whole campaign he scarcely uttered a word of abstinence.

His chair-cumtury, however, was voted for him, is strongly against prohibition. He was born in Kentucky in 1829, and like most men who get into Congress, studied law. He made a mark in his profession. His home is at Jellerville, Ill.

He has been a member thereof twice before, in 1868-69. Moreover, Mr. Morrison was an opponent in 1870, and he was elected. He has been elected to Congress Morrison was his Democratic opponent. Again they ran in opposition in 1879, and this time Morrison beat Baker. Thus he has defeated the "horizontal reduction" congressman three times, and has been defeated by him once. It is said that he has a powerful voice and great command of language. From that fact he might be expected to write a book called the "Grandeur and Decadence of the Roman Empire," which he did.

To his also written other books, but the "Grandeur and Decadence of the Roman Empire" is his best.

After being defeated by Morrison in 1879, Judge Baker was appointed President Grant's minister to Venezuela. He remained there till after the inauguration of the Democratic administration last year. Then he came home to Jellerville. Since then, says a correspondent, "he has walked about the streets of his town, talking to himself, and some of the people there thought he was crazy. He was a mere 'bald' to him of thinking about. He began last year to plan Morrison's defeat, and was merely going over the details of the work to be done. Many people talk to themselves, but not all to such purpose as Hon. John Baker. He is a high minded man, and considers that Mr. Morrison was a free trade doctrine. This seems to be a protection year in politics.

Naval officers belonging to the Atlantic squadron do not know John Baker. When he was minister to Venezuela some officers of our fleet were invited to a Washington celebration in that country. The freedom of the capital was given to them by (Gustavus) Hance, then president, with the request that they pay no bills. But after they had gone Minister Baker gathered up their bills and sent them to the secretary of state. It made things awkward all around.

Yellow Waldemar of Bulgaria.

If ever a royal family was born to pure blood it is the ruling house of Denmark. Of the six children of the king and queen all now wear or are heirs to a crown. The oldest daughter will be queen of England, the second daughter is the wife of the Duke of Cumberland, claimant to the throne of Hanover. The second son is king of Greece, and now Waldemar, the youngest child, who is not yet 30 years old, has been elected prince of the troubled little country of Bulgaria.

The prince was born Oct. 21, 1874. His name, Waldemar, is also spelled Valdemar, and in Russian Vladimir. Waldemar at the time of his election was a simple lieutenant in the Danish navy. He is a dumpy faced young man, who years ago was a simple lieutenant in the Danish navy. He is a dumpy faced young man, who years ago was a simple lieutenant in the Danish navy.

He was the impetuous spirit of royalty who a year ago married Princess Marie Amalie, daughter of the French Duke de Chartres. The French dukes are very rich, and Waldemar, with the princely taste of his marriage, made a good thing out of his marriage. He is a Protestant, she a Roman Catholic.

He was the impetuous spirit of royalty who a year ago married Princess Marie Amalie, daughter of the French Duke de Chartres. The French dukes are very rich, and Waldemar, with the princely taste of his marriage, made a good thing out of his marriage. He is a Protestant, she a Roman Catholic.

The legislative body of Bulgaria is called the National Assembly, and it is elected by the people. The prince is a simple lieutenant in the Danish navy. He is a dumpy faced young man, who years ago was a simple lieutenant in the Danish navy.

Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop," where Little Nell immortalized herself, is now supposed to be the structure at No. 14 Portsmouth street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, occupied by a dealer in waste paper. The neighborhood is one that Dickens often visited. Another of his attractions is Quilp's wharf, which exists under the name of Butler's wharf. Quilp himself is well remembered by a few of the oldest inhabitants, and the latest investigations increase the evidence that Dickens liked to chronicle what his own eyes had seen.

San Francisco papers indignantly disclaim the popular belief that "Frisko," instead of the full name, "San Francisco," is used by Californians. They say that the only people who use it are those who come from the East, and think it a "disgusting term."

Hood's Sarsaparilla, acting through the blood, rids every part of the system and in this way positively cures catarrh.

Catarrh in the Head

Catarrh is inflammation of the mucous membrane, attended with increased secretion. Thus catarrh may affect the head, throat, stomach, bowels, or any part of the body where the mucous membrane is found. But catarrh of the head is by far the most common, coming on so gradually that often its presence is not suspected till it has obtained a firm hold on its victim. It is caused by cold, or a succession of colds, combined with impure blood.

When firmly established the disease is exceedingly disagreeable, causing flow from the nose, dizziness of the head, headache, loss of appetite, roaring and buzzing noises in the ears, etc. In Hood's Sarsaparilla may be found a prompt and permanent cure for catarrh. It purifies and enriches the blood, soothes and rebuilds the diseased membrane, and thus cures the disease. At the same time it refreshes and tones the whole system. The remarkable success of this peculiar medicine attests it to your confidence. Give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial.
